(b) Artillery fire by Pakistani troops into Indian territory including base camp in Siachen sector is an ongoing feature. Constant vigil is maintained on the border and all appropriate measures have been taken to thwart any attempt of misadventure on the part of our adversaries.

Purchase of Anti-Tank Guided Missile by China

5499. SHRI C.M. IBRAHIM: Will the Minister of DEFENCE be pleased to state:

(a) whether Government's attention has been drawn to the report appearing in the Hindustan Times dated the 19th March, 2000 that 'China has covertly tried to buy one of US Army's most effective weapons, the Hell fire anti-tank guided missile from Egypt';

(b) if so, the salient features of this missile; and

(c) the steps taken by Government to raise materialising defences to ensure peace and security in the region?

THE MINISTER OF DEFENCE (SHRI GEORGE FERNANDES): (a) Yes, Sir.

(b) The AGM 114 missile, manufactured by the Lockheed Martin Corporation of the USA is commonly referred to by its NATO code name the "Hellfire". It is an air-to-ground laser guided anti-tank missile with a maximum range of 5000 meters and a minimum range of 300 meters. The missile is capable of a penetration of 900 mm of rolled homogenous armour. The missile is in use, inter-alia, with the Israeli, US, Swedish, Egyptian and NATO forces.

(c) Government keeps a close watch on all such developments which have a bearing on national security and appropriate measures are taken from time to time to ensure full defence preparedness to meet the emerging challenges.
